HILL FOR GOVERNOR

Given the Nomination Against His Will.

OTHER NOMINEES WITHDRAWN

Delegates Jump On Chairs and Have a Regular Hallelujah Time.

SARATOGA, September 25. — Senator David B. Hill was nominated for governor by acclamation. It is not known whether he will accept.

SARATOGA, September 26.—The scene in the Democratic state convention today was unparalelled in the history of conventions except, perhaps, in 1876, when Seymour was nominated by acclamation. All mentioned candidates were forgotten, and the mention of Hill's name caused a stampede in his favor. Fifteen hundred delegates yelled themselves hoarse, two bands of music tried to drown the tumult. Hill, as chairman, pounded violently but ineffectually with his gavel in a vain attempt to restore order. The strange situation of the presiding officer forced against his will to accept a unanimous nomination when other candidates had been prosented and apparently accepted by the convention.

Hill had ordered a roll call on the nominations already made. It was expected that John Boyd Thatcher would be the nominee. When Allegheny county was called Delegate Reynolds, unheard of in the party councils, threw a fire brand by saying, "The united delegation from Allegheny county desire to place in nomination for governor their first and only choice, David Bennett Hill. A wild scene ensued. Delegates jumped on chairs, spectators crowded into the aisles, all cheering. Hill, looking pale, cried for order. Bourke Cockran, John R. Fellows, Mayor Gilroy, Thomas Grady and other leaders jumped on the tables and urged on the applause. The cheers were renewed and lasted five minutes.

Finally when Hill could be heard he said: "I am grateful to the Democracy of the Empire state for this, but I cannot be your candidate again for governor." Cries of "No" and "you are the only man," and the applause was renewed. Hill insisted that the roll call be proceeded with, and overruled the point of order that the roll call could be dispensed with by unanimous vote. Several counties cast their vote for Hill. When New York was reached Senator Guy made an eulogistic speech for Hill, as the man of the hour and the greatest living exponent of Democratic principles. The former scene was repeated. Delegates rushed to the platform cheering and yelling.

Bourke Cockran secured a brief cessation of the tumult by jumping on the press table, thence to the stage, waving his arms. Cockran made an impassioned speech, calling upon the convention to disregard Hill's declination and to make him the nominee. Again the delegates yelled for several minutes. Hill ordered the roll call continued. Each remaining county cast its vote for Hill. When the roll was completed Thatcher's name was withdrawn by Hill, who proposed him. Hitt urged Hill to accede to the wishes of the convention. Hill was then the only candidate. Cockran jumped on the table and put the question, nominating Hill by acclamation. Cockran said to Hill: "Sir, the people summon you to your duty." [Applause.]

Delegates rushed to the stage, shouting for a recess to prevent Hill from refusing. Hill, pale and trembling, did not venture to speak. The leaders opposed an adjournment. The convention came to order, nominating Daniel Lockwood of Buffalo for lieutenant governor. A motion to adjourn sine die was carried, Senator Hill saying: "A convention that is running itself wants to adjourn. I declare it adjourned."

ALBANY, N. Y., September 26.—Hill and Lockwood were serenaded tonight. Hill in a speech expressed gratitude for the ovation of the Democracy. He said the convention had imposed responsibilities and obligations of which he could not speak tonight.

Rich Man's Son in Trouble.

SACRAMENTO, September 26.—Marion Biggs, whose father is a wealthy and a prominent business man of Yolo county, is occupying a cell in the prison here. He was arrested on complaint of D. O. Mills' bank. It is alleged that he presented a check at the bank for $175, and the amount was paid. The check was sent to the bank at Woodland for collection, but came back protested. Biggs claims there has been a mistake, and says he had at least $500 on deposit at Woodland.

Delmas Performed His Duty.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 26.—Attorney Delmas, who is accused by Grove L. Johnson of improper conduct in his summing up of testimony in the Martin will case, says: "I simply performed my duty. It is possible that in the heat of argument words were uttered on both sides that would have been better unsaid."

THE TRAFFIC ASSOCIATION.

Trustees of the Proposed Railroad Selected.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 26.—The California Traffic Association's executive committee met today to consider further the scheme of building a railroad up the San Joaquin valley. Isaac Upham, F. W. Van Sicklen, B. F. Dunham, Alvinza Hayward and Thomas Magee, all members of the traffic association's executive committee, were finally selected as trustees of the railroad company. Subscriptions are to be solicited at once.

The name of the new line is to be the San Francisco, Stockton and San Joaquin Railroad Company, with a capital stock of $6,000,000. although it is believed $4,000,000 will be ample for its construction and rolling stock. No subscription to the stock is to be valid unless $350,000 be obtained. At the end of ten years the stock is to be delivered to the holders of trustees' certificates. Subscriptions in San Francisco will be solicited at once, and Traffic Manager Leeds believes that in ten days sufficient funds will be obtained to warrant incorporation.

Construction will be commenced from Stockton south. It is expected that the right of way will be given by the San Joaquin valley people. The new road expects to reduce local freight 40 per cent. To prevent the road from purchase and absorbtion by a competitor, the power to vote the subscribed and issued stock will be vested in trustees pledged to maintain and operate the road strictly as a competing line. Vacancies on the board of trustees are to be filled by a majority of the surviving trustees, each new trustee being pledged as the original five. The stock will be represented by certificates issued by the trustees to subscribers, among whom any profits arising from the operation of the road will be divided. If any consolidation or amalgamation be made with another corporation, the trustees must obtain a majority of the capital stock of the consolidated corporation.

TYNAN RETURNS

AFTER BEING SUPPOSED DEAD FOR TWO YEARS.

A Spiritualist Claims to Have Discovered the Old Modesto Doctor in Boston.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 26.—Dr. Thomas E. Tynan, the Modesto physician and capitalist, whom the courts have declared dead and whose estate has been distributed among his relatives, arrived in San Francisco this morning. He was met at the Oakland ferry by numerous friends and business associates, who had been notified of his coming by parties who went on to Reno, Nev., to meet him. Though pale and slightly emaciated, the aged gentleman appeared in fairly good health. To reporters he refused to talk to any extent. He said, however, that he had been in Boston all the time since his disappearance, and that the reason for his sudden leaving over two years ago was to avoid the annoyance of litigation begun by his step daughters to recover property which they alleged belonged to them, the funds belonging to their deceased mother's estate having been appropriated by Tynan, as they claimed. It was an affectionate meeting between the Doctor and his present wife, who has been searching for him so long. The old man said he would probably never have returned had not the spiritualists of Slater discovered him in Boston and brought him on to Reno. Slater, who claims to have been guided by spirits, claims the $5000 reward offered by Mrs. Tynan.

Cowboys and Indians Fight.

WICHITA, Kan., September 26.—A pitched battle occurred in Cheyenne county, forty miles west of Hennessey, O. T., between cowboys and Indians. A band of cowboys came upon a band of Indians who were stealing cattle and hot words ended in an open fight. Two Indians were killed and two cowboys fatally wounded. Cattlemen are collecting the cowboys of the surrounding counties to follow the Indian band which still has the cattle.

San Francisco Democrats.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 26.—The Democratic convention made the following nominations tonight: County clerk, M. C. Haley; treasurer, Christian Reis; city and county attorney, H. T. Creswell; district attorney, J. T. Greaney; tax collector, J. N. Block; police judges, Melvin M. Foote, Samuel Regensberger, C. T. Conlan and Finley Cooke.

Zeigler Beat the Pacer.

SAN JOSE, September 26.—The champion bicyclist, Otto Zeigler Jr., raced a half mile against the pacing horse W. Wood today. Zeigler won, time one minute, which is considered remarkably good for the track. Wood was paced by a runner and Zeigler trailed along behind until near the distance stand when he shot ahead and won by about eight feet.

They Were Not Beheaded.

WASHINGTON, September 26. — The state department has advised officially that the report of the beheading of the two Japanese students accused of being spies and who were surrendered by the United States consul general at Shanghai, to whom they had appealed for protection, is untrue. The Japanese are in Chinese custody awaiting trial.

FRUITS IN SPIRITS.

California May Have a New Industry Opened.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 26.—The Examiner says that if the treasury department at Washington rules, as dispatches indicate it will, California will be able to put up fruits in spirits. Under the McKinley law foreign brandied fruits could compete with the home production, and for that reason California produced very little of that form of preserves. It, however, as seem probable, it shall be held that spirits coming into this country in whatever form, whether in bulk or as preserves of fruits, shall be taxed at full importation rates, then American will be placed upon an equality with European and brandied fruit, and will become one of the industries of this state.

RIVERDALE DOINGS.

Personal Mention and News of Various Sorts.

The flag floats proudly over our fine new school building, proclaiming a reign of instruction, presided over by Miss Martin. Riverdale can justly claim the finest rural school house in Fresno county, and our citizens are pardonably vain of it.

The regular quarterly meeting of the U. B. Church was held in Elkhorn school house September 19th and 20th, and was addressed by the Elder Bauder and the circuit pastor, W. D. Smith.

The Populist are active and mean business. Weekly meetings are held by the local club and candidates speak twice a month. September 19th an appreciative audience listened to O. Whiteside and J. W. Ferguson propound a few populistic theories, and admonish the "hayseed" to keep his eye open and on the lookout for good crops and plenteous times, when the Populists chanticleer can be abed until 9 a.m. and then get up in time to catch the proverbial early worm. The Democrats will hold their first rally of this campaign in Riverdale on September 28th in our school house.

Our roads are in a horrible condition and do not flatter our supervisor's activity in those matters.

With four tickets in the field and a few independent candidates the poor voter will have a hard time to judge which is right, and save himself from a lunatic asylum. CADMUS.

Riverdale, September 21st.

THAT DEMOCRATIC PLANK.

Andrew Jackson Rises to Defend Roseberry June.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Sometime ago one of your correspondents, Roseberry June, asserted that if the "combine plank" in the Democratic platform should ever be enacted into law—which is very improbable, as the Democratic party will fail to get into power—the raisin combine just organized would become illegal.

Mr. June was right in this assertion, for the Democratic platform makes declaration against all kinds of combines which are destructive to "independent competition;" and the raisin combine is destructive to "independent competition." It appears the greatest of follies for Justin Hugh, as he did in your issue last Saturday, to first abuse and insult Roseberry June for telling the truth about the Democratic platform, and next to vainly try to construe the meaning of combines upon the presumption that your readers are ignoramuses or destitute of reasoning powers. And yet here are the exact words of Justin Hugh, thus: "While the raisin association is a combine literally, it is very far from being considered as such in the political world." But as "the political world" of the Democratic platform gives the lie to Justin's assertion by declaring against "all kinds of combines which are destructive to independent competition;" and the raisin combine being organized to destroy, if possible, "independent competition" among the growers by means of a co-operation in the disposal of raisins, it is plain to every schoolboy Justin Hugh has placed himself in a very contemptible and ridiculous light before your readers. Your readers are asked to bear with his many blunders and clumsy ways of insulting respectable people until such time as Justin's bodily and reasoning powers are fully developed.

THE VALLEY ROAD.

MANAGER LEEDS AND HIS PLANS.

The Work of Securing Subscriptions to Commence This Week.

From the San Francisco Chronicle.

An important meeting of the executive committee of the Traffic Association was held Monday afternoon, at which the plan of the San Joaquin Valley road and the list of trustees whose names will be submitted to the capitalists in the appeal for subscriptions were completed and approved. By Wednesday or the next day the work of soliciting subscriptions will commence. Mr. Leeds says he expects to see active operations commenced on the construction of the road before many weeks.

"There are one or two minor details in the contract which have to be amended," said Mr. Leeds yesterday afternoon, "but in two or three days at the most it will be ready to submit to the public, and the work of securing subscriptions will commence. We want $350,000, and until that amount is subscribed no subscription will be binding. Under the laws of the state there must be $1000 subscribed for each mile of road incorporated, and 10 per cent paid in. The projected canal from Bakersfield to Stockton is but 200 miles, but as we expect to ultimately extend the line from Stockton to San Francisco we have incorporated that mileage in the plan. The entire distance is considerably under 350 miles, but we have seen fit to go beyond the limit. At $1000 per mile, the amount required by law, we need $350,000 before we can incorporate, and no subscriptions will be valid until that amount is subscribed. It is not to be supposed that we will start work with $350,000. But we must have some organization, and the sooner it is secured the better. We will probably incorporate for $6,000,000.

"The executive committee will do the canvassing, with such assistance as they may see fit to employ. I have no fear that the money will not be forthcoming, and I expect to see the road well along toward completion within a year. It will be built far enough down the valley to handle a good share of next year's crops. It is not a big job to build a road in the San Joaquin valley. The construction is easy, and when it is completed it will be the greatest day the city of San Francisco and the state of California ever saw."

MENDACITY NOT A DUTY.

After slandering some of the Republican candidates on the county ticket to the full extent of its capacity for concocting falsehood, the Expositor now has the effrontery, not to mention gall and some other inelegant things, to make a lengthy editorial statement in explanation of the duty which newspapers owe to the public in exposing official rascality and crime. THE REPUBLICAN and the public needs no instruction on this point. The duties of newspapers in this respect are well understood, and those duties do not include lying and sticking to it when the falsehood has been proven.

The Expositor deliberately falsified the record in regard to Judge Webb's action in the piano case, and when this paper proved by the record and a supreme court decision which it cited that it had done so, its brazen mendacity was unchecked and it simply added dirty insinuation to its original falsehood.

So far as the merits of this particular case are concerned it is unnecessary to pursue it further, but in order that the public may fully understand the reckless character of the paper which is making unprovoked attacks upon the character of Republican candidates merely because they are Republicans, we print in this issue a full statement of facts regarding this matter by N. C. Coldwell, who was an attorney in the case and understands every feature of it thoroughly. Mr. Coldwell's statement proves the mendacity of the Expositor beyond question, for while that paper may persist in denouncing Republican candidates as unworthy of belief or consideration, it will hardly attack Mr. Coldwell either in point of veracity or soundness of legal opinion.

A further illustration of the Expositor's fairness of profession and maliciousness of conduct is at hand. In the same issue with the high-sounding editorial setting forth the duties of newspapers it makes the statement that the campaign is being conducted for Sheriff Scott on a basis of trading off the balance of the ticket for the sheriff's office. Every man in Fresno county personally acquainted with Jay Scott well knows that this is a preposterous falsehood. The present administration of the sheriff's office has not been without mistakes, and neither have those which have preceded it or will those which follow, but Jay Scott is a square man, and would not in a single instance nor for a single day permit such a policy to be pursued. It is simply another instance of attacking the character of a man because he happens to be a Republican candidate.

CALL A MASS MEETING.

We understand that it is claimed by the majority of the City Board of Education that public sentiment is not strongly in favor of a more central location for the high school than the Terry block, but that those who are opposed to the location selected are doing all the talking. As a means of determining what public sentiment on this question actually is, THE REPUBLICAN would suggest that a mass meeting of citizens be called and the subject thoroughly discussed. The location of the high school is a subject of sufficient importance to warrant the attention and interest of every citizen, and the board will hardly refuse to consider an expression of opinion should it appear to be practically unanimous either one way or the other. There is at the present time no binding contract standing in the way of any action that may be decided on in regard to location, and the question as to what is the desire of the large majority of the citizens and taxpayers, if any such unanimity of sentiment exists, should be determined at once.

In the Stoneman campaign the Democracy of this state made almost exactly the same sort of fight it is making now. The railroad was their exclusive issue, and their candidate for governor was the nemesis of the corporation. The result was Democratic success and an administration the most utterly subservient to railroad interests that the state has ever known. Morris M. Estee was then as now the Republican candidate, and was then as now denounced as a sympathizer with the interests of the corporation. The railroad threw its strength with the party which was most violently assailing it and the Democratic ticket was elected. The attempt to pledge Democratic candidates for the legislature to John P. Irish for United States senator looks very much as though the same old game is being played.

"GENERAL" FRY, the Californian leader in the Coxey army, has given out the information to a prominent labor leader that he is a member of a secret order, the purpose of which is to inaugurate a revolution upon the occurrence of the next general strike. If this statement of the "General" proves to be well founded, the proper thing for Uncle Sam to do is to take down the old rusty shooting irons from the pegs over the kitchen door, oil 'em up, and see that the buckskin pouch is full of ammunition. Anarchists may be pretty small game for a fellow who has been used to fighting real men, but even a bear hunter finds himself in an unpleasant predicament in a nest of skunks without his "weapins" ready for business.

THE recent election in Victoria resulted in such an overwhelming victory for the policy of protection that the free-trade party is practically annihilated. Under existing conditions throughout the world the only countries which can afford to have free trade are those in which labor is reduced to a state of vassalage, and where it is deemed desirable to keep it in that condition.

THERE is one thing in regard to the location of the high school on which this paper holds a very positive opinion. It must not be built on land to which the city has not already acquired a clear and perfect title. Talk of an indemnity bond pending perfection of a title is preposterous. The people voted bonds to build a high school, not to acquire a law suit.

THE nomination of Dave for governor of New York makes the issue clean cut between Tammany hall and the rest of the state. It is an unexpected nomination, but Hill has one element of strength which cannot be left out of consideration. Every man who castes a vote for him will feel that he has given Grover Cleveland a punch below the belt.

THE only way to get and keep money in circulation, that is recognized as being worth its face value around the world, is to restore public confidence in legitimate industry.—Expositor.

And the only way to do that is to keep the Democratic party from making another disastrous crusade for free trade.

THE Expositor has a good deal to say about W. D. Grady's unreliability as a political historian, but it has very little to say about its legislative nominees being opposed to John P. Irish for United States senator.

IT would indeed be a great anti-railroad triumph to elect the Democratic ticket and send John P. Irish to the United States senate.

WEBB VINDICATED.

And That by a Political Opponent.

ANOTHER LEGAL QUESTION.

The Decision in the Walker Case as Viewed by Attorney Coldwell.

That Expositor piano story is fated, like the "boomerang" pamphlet lately issued by the Democratic campaign managers, to react.

A reporter of THE REPUBLICAN called yesterday on N. O. Coldwell of the firm of Sayle & Coldwell, and said: "Mr. Coldwell, I understand that you were attorney for the defendant in the piano case, wherein it is alleged that Judge Webb took a snap judgment on the plaintiff in the action. Would you have any objection to state the facts?"

Mr. Coldwell replied: "Certainly not. I remember the case very well. The facts occurred sometime in the spring of 1893. I think it was in April. The case was set down for trial at 9 o'clock in the morning of a certain day of that month. At the time fixed for the trial I appeared in court as attorney for the defendant. I reached the courtroom a very short time after 9 o'clock, probably not more than a minute. Judge Webb was then on the bench, and as I took my seat he said: 'Mr. Coldwell, the case of Ellis vs. Matheson is called, what do you want to do with it?'

"I replied: 'The defendant is ready for trial, and as I do not see the plaintiff or her attorneys present I move that the case be dismissed for failure of the plaintiff to appear at the trial and prosecute.' Judge Webb said:

"'There is another matter to be heard after this that will take but a short time, so we will take that up and perhaps they will appear in the meantime.' This was a matter in which M. Denicke was interested. Denicke was sworn and examined as a witness and obtained judgment at the conclusion of the hearing. The court next took up a matter in which R. P. Ashe was a defendant, G. L. Warlow appearing for the plaintiff. Mr. Warlow was sworn and testified in the proceeding, and the case was disposed of. I then renewed my application for a dismissal of the action of Ellis vs Matheson, and the court ordered the bailiff in attendance to call the plaintiff and her attorneys and the bailiff did so. He called C. C. Merriam three times, W. J. Timin three times, and Vic Ellis three times, and then reported to the court that there was no answer. The court thereupon ordered the clerk to enter an order dismissing the action for failure of the plaintiff to appear and prosecute the same. At that time it was about eighteen or twenty minutes after 9 o'clock by the clock hanging in the court room."

The reporter then asked: "What have you to say about Judge Webb's refusal to set aside the order dismissing the case; did the law require him to act as he did?"

Mr. Coldwell replied: "In my opinion on the showing made to reopen the case Judge Webb had no other course; he could do nothing else but refuse. In such a case the law requires an affidavit of merits to be made. That affidavit must be made in all cases by the plaintiff, or at least by a party who has an actual personal knowledge of all of the facts of the case, which must be stated in the affidavit. If the affidavit is made by any person other than the client the affidavit must set forth why it was not made by the client. In this case the affidavit of merits was made by one of the attorneys of the plaintiff. That affidavit did not show why it was made by the attorney and not by the client; did not contain any statement that the attorney knew all the facts of the case. It simply stated that plaintiff's case had merits, and that was a matter of law and not of facts; and also that plaintiff was, the owner of the piano; and that was as the lawyers term it, a mixed question of law and fact."

The reporter then called Mr. Coldwell's attention to a case which was claimed to be a parallel with the one mentioned in the 68 California reports, cited by the Expositor. Mr. Coldwell said: "That case was very different from this one. In that case default had been taken against the defendant. In this case no default had been taken against the plaintiff. That would be impossible. Default can never be taken against a plaintiff. In this case judgment had been entered against the plaintiff for failure to prosecute. Besides, in the case reported in 68 California, the parties plaintiff were Indians, ignorant of business and unable to speak the English language. These facts were shown to the court—in other words, the affidavit showed why it was not made by the plaintiffs instead of their attorney—and the court held these facts to be a sufficient reason to admit the affidavit of their attorney.

"As this matter has been made to assume political significance, I desire to say that I am a Democrat, and shall vote for the Democratic nominees for superior judge. One of them I know to possess exceptional qualifications for the office, and the other I know to be a courteous gentleman and a good lawyer.

"Upon request made to me, I feel that I am compelled to make this statement as an act of justice to Judge Webb."

Mr. Coldwell said these words very emphatically and then folded his arms and asked if there were any other questions.

The reporter said he would have to switch off a little, and invited Mr. Coldwell's attention to the following paragraph from his note book:

"A novel state of affairs is presented in the court house as a result of the decision of the state supreme court in the case of Walser vs. Austin, and heads of departments are asking themselves with considerable anxiety where this far-reaching decision is expected to end. They are allowed a certain number of deputies by law, which in many cases has been exceeded, and the question is who is going to foot the bills for the extra deputies, if Auditor Austin should take the same course that he did with Walser."

This paragraph was submitted to Mr. Coldwell and an expression of his views was requested. Mr. Coldwell was the attorney for Austin in the case referred to, and said: "The decision in the case of Walser vs. Austin established the proposition that Walser was not entitled to any salary as deputy district attorney. Under the county government act the district attorney draws a certain salary for his services. It is also provided that the board of supervisors may allow the district attorney one deputy at a salary not exceeding $1500 per annum, if, in their judgment, the service of such deputy is necessary. Under that provision of the law, which is applicable to every county in this state, the district attorney of this county is entitled to one deputy, to be paid by the county, if the board of supervisors authorize him to appoint such deputy, and not otherwise.

"The provisions of the county government act, which are made expressly applicable to counties of the eighth class (and Fresno is the only one of the eighth class), provide that there shall be one district attorney, and that he may of his own motion and without the authority of the Board of Supervisors appoint three deputy district attorneys. The decision in the Walser case declares this provision of the law to be unconstitutional and therefore void. The District Attorney of this county has appointed his deputies under that provision of the county government act, which has been declared void, and not by authority of the Board of Supervisors. These deputies were all regularly appointed and they have authority to perform the duties of the office, but they are not entitled to any salary from the county. The District Attorney may appoint a hundred deputies if he so desires, but they must be paid by himself and not by the county. This was settled to be the law in the case of Welsh vs. Bramlet, which was decided by the supreme court two years ago.

"The action of Walser vs. Austin was a perfectly useless proceeding. The decision of the supreme court in that case simply reaffirms what it had before declared to be the law in the case of Welsh vs. Bramlet.

"Upon the principles enunciated in the case of Walser vs. Austin and Welsh vs. Bramlet, if carried to their logical result, no county officer has the power to appoint any deputy and make his salary a county charge, without being authorized by the board of supervisors. The payment of any such salary is without authority of law, and an action will lie on behalf of the county to recover the money."

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Fall of Shelving in J. S. Hermann's Store.

What might have been a fatal accident, and which was an expensive one, occurred about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at J. S. Hermann's clothing and furnishing store at 1822 and 1824 Mariposa street. The upper shelving along one whole side of the store gave way and fell with a tremendous crash, breaking all the show cases on that side of the store, and scattering boxes all over the floor. It was by chance that some one or more persons were not killed or badly injured, for usually there has been some one behind the counter there, and had anyone been struck by the heavy shelving, loaded as they were with boxes, the result must have been very serious.

The crash was heard a block or more away. The reason for the falling of the shelves was that a too great weight of goods had been piled upon them, and they finally gave way under the continual strain.

The loss was considerable, aside from the broken shelves and the ruined show cases, and the injury to the articles in the show cases. The goods from the shelves were scattered all over the floor, and nearly all of the boxes were broken open, and the contents were rolled about in the dust. These goods, while really as good as they ever were, will not do to go back on the shelves as new goods, and the only way to dispose of them at all will be to sell them at whatever price can be obtained, even if it is next to nothing. There was no insurance against that kind of accident, and the sacrifice in disposing of these goods will be a heavy one for the firm to make, but there seems to be no other way out of it.

A. C. HUGHEY'S FUNERAL.

Attended to His Last Rest by a Military Escort.

The funeral of A. C. Hughey, formerly city engineer of Fresno, occured yesterday afternoon, and the interment took place in the Mountain View cemetery, and he was attended to his last rest by a military escort. He had been a member of company C, Sixth regiment, N. G. C. The funeral procession formed on I street, and in front was the firing squad consisting of six soldiers, acting as escort for the hearse and the rest of the procession. Then came the six pall bearers, followed by the rest of the company. The casket was a handsome one, and the drapery indicated the burial of a soldier. Over the casket was draped the American flag, and on it rested a soldier's cap, a cartridge box and a bayonet.

The burial took place under military ceremony. A salute was fired over the grave, and the drummers sounded the long roll. Although Mr. Hughey died far from his home in Florida, yet there were many friends who attended him on his last earthly journey and saw him laid away to his rest under the skies and flowers of California.

A Farewell Reception.

A reception was given to Misses Lena Witthouse and Lenna Shumard last Tuesday evening at the Methodist parsonage in Easton. The occasion was the approaching departure of the young ladies, who leave Easton to take charge of schools. The evening was spent in games and conversation, after which ice cream and cake were served. As a closing song the entire party joined in "God be with you till we meet again." All bade the ladies God speed, and went home feeling well repaid. Those present were: Mesdames McCormick, Bixby and Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Taylor, Misses Lena Witthouse, Lenna Shumard, Annie McCormick, Sadie Dennis, Blanche Bixby, Gertrude McCormick, Grace Madden, Annie Swanson, Sadie Tyler, Daisy Fowler, Mabel Hays, Carrie Morgan, Emma and Annie Swanhom, Lillie Huff; Messrs. J. McCormick, Frank Chamberlain, H. Brooks, Albert and Guy Bixby, M. McCormick, E. J. Nuttin, R. Madden, Judd Hays, Fred Moore, A. Christensen, Ray Munson, Merrill Chamberlain.

Pleaded Not Guilty.

Low Kine, a Chinaman, was before Judge Webb yesterday on the charge of burglary. He had been examined in the justice's court and was held to appear before the superior court. Kine is accused of being one of the burglars who entered George Bros', tailor shop on May 20th, and stole about $250 worth of goods. Kine was represented by E. D. Edwards, and entered a plea of not guilty.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

"Massey Woollen Mills" and the "Snipe Hunters."

HARMONY WITH TWO CLUBS.

Many Called but Few Chosen for the Democratic Deputy District Attorneyship.

The evening paper has evidently lost confidence in tracts since that fatal "folder." At any rate in its issue of September 25th it gives a small paragraph of free trade argument and says it is "worth cartloads of tracts." The paragraph is intended to be a clincher to the argument in favor of free wool, and states that the Massey Manufacturing Company of Toronto, Canada, employing 2000 hands, proposes to remove its woolen mills to the United States for the reason that the tariff on wool and woolen goods in this country is so much more satisfactory than in Canada. In other words, those large woolen mills like our system of free trade on wool. To clinch the argument still more firmly, N. L. F. Bachman in yesterday evening's paper commented on the great meaning of the move to be made by the Massey company.

The whole thing is spoiled, however, by the simple fact that the Massey Manufacturing Company has no woollen mills in Toronto, and never had any there nor any place else in the civilized or uncivilized world. It is only one more case of "barking up the wrong stump," to use a classical phrase. The result of almost every free trade article which has come out yet in any paper, and which, at first glance, has seemed to substantiate the claims of the free traders, has been found upon investigation to be just like the Massey woollen mills—a mistake somewhere. Whenever a plausible free trade argument is made, no matter how plausible it may seem, it can be taken for granted that an investigation will cause it to take to its hole in a hurry. "Error wounded writhes with pain and dies amid her worshipers."

* * *

The rival Democratic clubs, that is the Jim Budd Club and the Central Club, will not let the hatchet stay buried. They have buried it several times, but as soon as one's back is turned the other runs and digs it up, and thus both of them are kept busy watching the other. If the chairman of the county central committee has announced his ultimatum that he will not accept orders from the president of the Jim Budd Club the same may be said of the other side. The Jim Budds are going ahead organizing sub clubs, whether the central club likes it or not, and vice versa.

But there is harmony. There is no conflict in purpose or sentiment; and the Central club did not organize to oppose the Jim Budds, but only to show their zeal and enthusiasm for the Democratic party. It seems essential to the prosperity and happiness of the true Democracy that there be two camps. That is the way Hill and Cleveland have been having it in New York, and it makes things just lovely. Nobody can blame the true and faithful of Fresno for following the example of their illustrious models.

* * *

Remote probabilities are sometimes figured on. There is a branch of higher mathematics called the "Calculus of Probabilities," and it is used by astronomers in calculating how many chances the comets have of knocking the gable ends off the planets as they go flying aimlessly about through space. If this same branch of mathematic should be brought to bear on the probabilities of the election of George L. Warlow to the district attorneyship, and it should be found that there is a chance, like the chance of a comet hitting a planet, the question would be, "Whom will he appoint as his deputies?" That question is one which very nearly concerns a large number of the Democratic attorneys of Fresno. The three places, notwithstanding the adverse decision against Walser, are plums that make many an eye glisten with longing and hope. But who are to get them? Does anyone suppose that the matter has not been settled, subject to the contingency of Warlow's election? The evening winds that murmur along the sharp angles of the buildings whisper the names of the chosen ones—Crichton, Gallagher and Welsh.

Wielded the Sheep Shears.

A Mexican named A. Salazar was in Justice Austin's court yesterday on a charge of battery, it being alleged in the complaint that he struck Rito Sanches on the head with a pair of sheep shears. The trouble took place near Mendota, and there being no justice of the peace there, since the resignation of A. L. Rorat, the defendant was arrested and brought to Fresno. Salazar says he acted in self defense, as Sanches was attempting to draw a pistol. The case comes up for trial October 4th at 10 a.m. The defendant was held in $500 bonds.

Insolvency Suit.

In the office of the county clerk yesterday J. E. Hughes, by his attorneys L. L. Cory and F. H. Short, filed a petition in insolvency. He places his assets at $17,500, and his liabilities at $33,685.65.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

LOOKING OVER THE FIELD.

Judge Daly of the State Executive Committee Taking Notes.

Judge Daly of Ventura is in town looking over the political field. He is a member of the Republican executive committee of the state, and will spend a brief portion of his time here in consultation with the local Republican leaders, after which he will depart on a similar mission to the Salinas valley.

The Judge, who by the way disclaims any preference for the title, is a benevolent looking, middle-aged gentleman, with a pair of spectacles and a smile. He has had a considerable political experience on both sides of the continent and belongs to the class of organizers rather than of orators. He is not in the least perturbed by adverse criticism, noise or bluster, but believes that thorough organization is more effective than red lights and loud noise.

Parenthetically it may be stated that Judge Daly believes in diplomacy rather than in low-class political jugglery or corrupt methods. He speaks respectfully of all the parties in the field, and appeals to their reason rather than their passions or cravings for pelf.

Judge Daly would like to have Millard, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, speak here if possible to arrange the date, and is conferring with the county committee to that end. Millard will pass through the valley in a week or ten days, and the Judge hopes to have him speak at Tulare, Hanford, Fresno, Madera and Merced.

Barton-Riding.

On September 26th there was a pleasant wedding solemnized in the First Baptist church of this city, Rev. H. G. DeWitt officiating. David Barton and Miss Mary Riding were the contracting parties. Miss Riding came here some time ago from the east as the guest of Mrs. McWhirter. The wedding was attended by several hundred friends.

City Tax Receipts Ready.

The municipal taxes may now be paid. The receipts are ready and the rolls all made out. Money paid in as taxes now will soon find its way into circulation again, as there are many claims waiting to be paid, and the people holding them need their money.

DEMOCRATS AT SELMA.

The Speakers Do Well Under Trying Circumstances.

From the Selma Enterprise.

G. W. Terrill presided at the Democratic meeting in the opera house Thursday evening. The speakers present were Judge Strother, G. W. Mordecai, George W. Smith and George L. Warlow. We are loth to believe that the number or zeal of the good old Democratic party in Selma was at all indicated by the audience. The Cemetery Association's lawn social and the Salvation Army's minstrel entertainment offered rival attractions. We can account for the absence of all the enthusiastic Democrats in no other way. Even the name of James H. Budd of Stockton uttered with earnest emphasis touched no responsive chord. Dead silence accentuated the pause that followed the utterances of the name with which the state Democracy seek to conjure. There was a stir that amounted almost to applause when the name of Stephen M. White was mentioned, which became quite decided when the People's party candidates were roasted. The name of Grover Cleveland "our President" fell upon the house like a white frost. Under the circumstances the speakers acquitted themselves nobly. They were advocating a lost cause in the presence of people who were as well acquainted with the history recounted as themselves. We consider it a real discourtesy for Democrats to invite speakers here and treat them so coldly, and it will be necessary for the credit of the town for Republicans and Populists to come out and give future speakers an audience. It is but fair to Mr. Mordecai to state his denial of the charge that he had anything to do with special legislation for Fresno county which is a part of the county government act. He puts the whole burden of that section 170 on the shoulders of Senator Goucher, president of the Jim Budd club—for economical government. He also characterized as they deserved those appropriations for public buildings made by the Democratic legislature of 1889.

* * *

Each of the speakers clearly enunciated the future policy of the party to be free raw materials and a tax on the manufactured article. This sounded especially significant when Mr. Warlow placed it alongside the tirade against the Republican policy that had built up the manufacturing trusts by a protective tariff until a man had to pay to those protected manufacturers $25 for a suit of clothes that under free trade should cost $10, but his party proposes to give those trusts free raw material—and protection.

His argument was to the effect that a duty raised the price of the manufactured article, but he failed to point out how the price was to be reduced by giving the pampered pets of Republicans the protection of an import duty on foreign manufactures while furnishing them free wool—foreign wool which has paid a duty of $18,000,000 during the past year, for the privilege of entering our markets, or what gain there was to the people in taking the tariff off wool and agricultural implements and diamonds and making up the necessary revenue on sugar, an article that none of us can do without, though some of us can manage to scrape along without diamonds or opium, or cigarettes, or velvet carpets.

Mr. Warlow characterized the protective tariff as unconstitutional and a fraud, as a Republican invention as a war measure.

If he had been conversant with the history of his party he would have known that the first plank of the first Democratic platform ever adopted declared for protection to American industry. On that platform Andrew Jackson was elected President in 1832.

BOX MAKERS' STRIKE.

A Fight Follows an Attempt to Fill the Vacant Places.

A free for all fight took place last night at Butler & Forsyth's packing house, in which hatchets, box lumber and stray pieces of cleats and scantling were the weapons used. It appears that Butler & Forsyth have let the contract to make their boxes to one man, who in turn employs the boxmakers, and the work is done at the packing-house.

Yesterday afternoon the contractor informed his men that a cut of 25 per cent would be made in their wages. Upon this announcement all hands, about fifteen in number, quit, and said they would not work at the reduced figure. Another crew was brought to fill their places, and all went smoothly until after dark. Being behind in boxes they were compelled to work late last night. At about 9.30 the strikers returned with the determination to drive out the new crew. After a sharp fight lasting but a few minutes, the attacking party was driven off, considerably the worse for wear, for some of them were pretty badly bruised. A telephone message was sent to police headquarters and several officers responded. No arrests were made.

The Inquest on Doherty's Body.

An inquest was yesterday held on the body of John Doherty, who was killed near Collis. A cousin of Doherty's had been found. He testified that they had been working on a vineyard for several days. John quit on Sunday and came to Fresno. The last he saw of him was between 12 and 1 o'clock Sunday night in Degen's saloon. John Doherty told his cousin that he was going to take the train out for San Francisco.

Dr. J. L. Manpin was called and testified as to the condition of the body when found.

The jury brought in the verdict that he came to his death from injuries received by cars on the Southern Pacific railway.
